Re: Article by Robert G. Kaiser,

Dear Mr. Casey:

The article by Robert G. Kaiser in the Washington Post (Outlook) on January 2, 1983 totally misrepresented me and the work which was performed by our excellent Legal Services Board of Directors during 1982.

For your information I have enclosed a letter to Meg Greenfield, Editorial Page Editor of the Washington Post, which I have written in reply to the Kaiser defamation. I hope you find it informative.

Cordially yours,
